PART VII: WITHHOLDING NOTICE AND ELECTION

Form W-4P OMB No. 1545-0415
Dept. of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service

Notice: The distributions you receive from your IRA are subject to federal income tax withholding unless you waive withholding. Generally, federal income tax withholding applies to the taxable part of your IRA distribution. Thus, for example, there will be no withholding on the return of your own nondeductible contributions from your Traditional IRA. You may waive withholding on your IRA distribution by signing and dating the IRS Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, or this substitute Form W-4P and returning it to your IRA Trustee or Custodian listed above. If you waive withholding on your IRA distribution, or if you do not have enough federal income tax withheld from your IRA distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. You may waive state income tax withholding to the extent permitted by law. You are responsible for determining and paying all federal, and if applicable, state and local taxes on distributions from all IRAs you own. If you do not waive withholding, ten percent will be withheld from your IRA distribution. Your election is valid until you revoke it. You may change your withholding election by completing another Form W-4P or substitute. Also note, if you are a U.S. citizen or resident alien receiving an IRA distribution that is delivered outside the United States or its possessions, withholding is required. That is, you may not waive withholding. If you are a non-resident alien you may not use Form W-4P to withhold income tax or to waive withholding. A foreign person should refer to IRS Publication 515 and to Form W-8BEN.

Election: Unless a previous withholding election is in place, you indicate a different withholding amount below, or you waive withholding by indicating your election below, ten percent will be withheld from your IRA distribution.

If no election is made, we are REQUIRED to withhold 10% Federal Income Tax.
